Car Strikes Apartment Complex in Wallingford

On February 13, 2024 around 20:57 hours, officers responded to 327 South Elm Street for a car that crashed into a building. Upon arrival, officers discovered that a gray 2016 Kia Optima crashed into the front side of the apartment complex causing damage to the structure. The operator of the Kia was transported to the hospital for evaluation of suspected minor injuries. No other injuries were reported at this time.

The initial investigation determined that the Kia was traveling westbound on Wharton Brook Drive approaching its intersection with South Elm Street when it continued straight across the road and into the apartment complex at 327 South Elm Street.

No arrest was made on the scene and this incident is still under investigation.

The Wallingford Police Patrol Division and the Wallingford Fire Department handled this incident with assistance from the Wallingford Building Department.
