Assault with a Knife Arrest

On June 24, 2024, members of the Wallingford Police Department arrested 28-year-old Alan Munoz-Velez of 533 Center Street Apt #1, Wallingford. Munoz-Velez was charged with Criminal Attempt at Assault in the First Degree in violation of Section 53a-49(53a-59), Assault in the Third Degree in violation of Section 53a-61, Tampering with Physical Evidence in violation of Section 53a-155 and Breach of Peace in violation of Section 53a-181. Munoz-Velez was held on a $100,000 surety bond and issued a court date of Tuesday, June 25, 2024, at Meriden Superior Court (G.A.7) at 9:00 am.

On June 24, 2024 around 12:34 pm, officers responded to 533 Center Street for a domestic dispute where a knife was used. Officers later discovered that Munoz-Velez allegedly stabbed a male victim at the address. When officers responded to the scene, they encountered Munoz-Velez in the back yard of the residence. Officers held Munoz-Velez at gunpoint and gave several commands. He was taken into custody without incident. After investigation, officers discovered that Munoz-Velez tried to stab a relative during a dispute that occurred in the driveway at the residence. During this dispute, another relative attempted to intervene and sustained a non-life threatening laceration to his right hand.

The Wallingford Police Patrol and Detective Divisions conducted this investigation. Please contact (203)294-2800 with any information. Case reference #24-17263.
