UPDATE Second Arrest Made in Robbery Incident at Wallingford Gas Station UPDATE

On Thursday July 29, 2021 at approximately 0152 hours, officers responded to Sunoco Gas Station at 810 South Colony Road for an armed robbery complaint. The initial investigation revealed the male and female suspects used a knife to threaten the clerk. Both suspects wore partial facemasks, stole cash from the register, and left the scene in a blue Mitsubishi Mirage bearing Connecticut registration BB37250 that was stolen out of Hartford at the time of the incident. After investigation, an arrest warrant was obtained for 23-year-old Jacqueline Gambardella of 192 North Airline Road, Wallingford, CT 06492. Gambardella was arrested and charged on October 8, 2021.

After further investigation by the Wallingford Police Detective Division, an arrest warrant was obtained for 30-year-old Frankie Crespo of LKA 94 Portland Street, Windsor, CT 06095. He was arrested and charged on November 5, 2021.
