Wallingford Police Investigate Brazen TV Theft at BJ's

On 10-18-2021 around 8:25pm, officers responded to BJ's (1046 North Colony Road) for the report of a theft of televisions. The caller said that two males and one female were stealing several TV's from the store and loading them into the back of a tan minivan and a tan-colored Chevrolet Suburban. The suspects fled the scene prior to police arrival. No arrest was made at the time of this notice.

After investigation, officers determined that a store employee was assaulted during the theft, but did not sustain any notable injury. The store employee tried to regain control of one of the TV's being stolen, when the suspect struck his hand to break his grip.

Two 75in. Samsung 4K LED Smart TV's and one 75in. LG 4K UHD Smart TV were stolen in the theft with an estimated total value of $3,269.97.

The case was transferred to the Wallingford Detective Division. We are working with several other law enforcement agencies and the investigation is ongoing at this time.
