Female Arrested Within Hours of Wallingford Bank Robbery

On October 5th 2021, Wallingford Police responded to Webster Bank (64 South Main Street) at 2:27 PM for a reported bank robbery that had just occurred. After investigation, 46-year-old Jennifer Key of LKA 1315 N. Sycamore Street, Palestine, TX was located just over 1.5 miles away from the crime scene and arrested.

Webster Bank called the police department, reported the female suspect passed a note to a bank teller demanding cash, and said she left on foot down South Main Street. Staff at the bank said she made off with an undetermined amount of cash and that no weapon was used during the theft. Officers descended upon the area immediately, conducted a swift investigation, and eventually found Key walking on Long Hill Road near Tremper Drive. Key was arrested and transported to Wallingford Police Headquarters for processing.

No injuries were reported and Key is the sole suspect at this time. There is no threat to the public as this incident has been contained. Her booking details are listed below.
