Wallingford Police Execute Search Warrant & Seize Firearm from Convicted Felon

While in the course of investigating a cold case from 1988, Wallingford Police Detectives received information concerning the theft of a firearm. After an investigation, probable cause was developed that Mark Vincent, who is a convicted felon, had stolen and was currently in possession of a handgun. Wallingford Police Detectives in turn obtained a Superior Court Search and Seizure warrant and located Vincent in the City of Milford, Connecticut, at the Milford Christian Church. A search was conducted pursuant to the warrant and detectives located a Ruger LCP .380 handgun and ammunition in Vincent's possession. With the assistance of the Milford Police Department, Mark Vincent, age 65, LKA of Johnson Vermont, was placed under arrest for the following violations: C.G.S. 53a-217-Criminal Possession of a Firearm (2 counts) C.G.S. 53a-212-Theft of a Firearm.

Vincent was arraigned at Milford Superior Court G.A.22 on February 17, 2022 and is currently being held on a $250,000.00 bond.
