Prostitution Related Arrest in Wallingford

Over the past several months, the Wallingford Police Department has received numerous anonymous complaints regarding a prostitution ring operating at 333 South Elm Street. The location is associated with 41-year-old Erica Waller, who was previously arrested for prostitution by this agency in October 2024. Investigating officers found that Waller continued to use a website to offer a "menu" of sexual services to potential clients.

Undercover officers engaged with Waller on the website and arranged a meeting on January 10, 2025. This meeting ultimately led to her arrest after she agreed to perform sexual acts in exchange for money.

Waller has been charged with C.G.S. 53a-88 for Promoting Prostitution in the 3rd Degree. She was released on a $7,500 non-surety bond. Waller's court date is set for January 24, 2025, at 9:00 AM at G.A. #7 in Meriden.

The Wallingford Police Community Impact Unit conducted the investigation. For more information, please contact the Community Impact Unit at (203)294-2820 or visit www.police.wallingfordct.gov.
